Troubleshooting:

Google Classroom not working due to signing into classroom with your personal e-mail account.

This is the most common problem. Learners access Google Classroom by registering with their personal e-mails and then find they cannot access their classes via invite or class code. To rectify this, you must do as follows and re-register with your college e-mail:
Computer/ Laptop:

1. Click on to the ‘Circle’ on the top right of the screen and either ‘sign out’ of your personal account or click ‘add another account’.

Then proceed to re-register using your college e-mail and password (see page 1)
Ipad/ Mac:

1. Click on the ‘three lines’ on the screen.

2. Click on the arrow next to your personal e-mail address.

3. Click ‘Add Account’ or ‘Manage Account’ (and then Remove Account)

Then proceed to re-register using your college e-mail and password (see page 1)
Android Phone:

1. Click on the three horizontal lines at the top.

2. Click on ‘Add Another Account’

3. You will be prompted to add another e-mail address and password and should now use your college e-mail address and password (see page 4):
Iphone:

1. Click on the ‘Circled Letter’ at the top.

   ![Google Classroom interface showing 'Click on the Circle at the top']

2. Click on ‘Add Another Account’

   ![Google Classroom interface showing 'Click on 'Add another account’']

3. You will be prompted to add another e-mail address and password and should now use your college e-mail address and password (see page 7):
